I need not tell you Who your Captain is--the same Whose sign you received at baptism. But, oh, what a difference between you and this worlds soldiers! No earthly commander can infuse into his troops any hidden strength which will ensure success, but you have been strengthened with all might by Gods Spirit in the inner man, and if you are only true to your captain and yourselves you are certain to overcome. You have been confirmed; you have been made strong. He who came down upon your Lord after His baptism in the form of a dove; He who descended upon the Apostles in the likeness of fiery tongues, has come to all prepared hearts among you invisibly, without observation, but really and truly. The promise of our blessed Lord is fulfilled. He has sent the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth, to dwell in you and be in you (St. John, xiv, 16, 17). As St. John said, The anointing which ye have received of Him abideth in you. (1 St. John ii, 27. ) God has done His part. You must now do yours. Do you remember St. Pauls words to the Corinthians (2 Cor. vi, 1), We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. This is what I say to you now. The grace has been given you. Take care that it be not...
