Shall the army of the Lord dismiss its veterans without adequate support? This is a work which the consistories should carry forward with zeal and generosity. THE OPENING OF OUR MITE BOXES. BY THE REV. J. A. BILLINGSLEY. It was with considerable uncertainty and trepidation that our Woman s Missionary and Aid Society came together for its first quarterly meeting, when the mite boxes were to be opened and the offerings counted. I could see in the faces of the mothers and the young girls the deep concern with fwhich they awaited the gathering of the mite boxes, fearing lest the contents of their own box might not conform favorably with the others. But as the results became known, and the hour...
