When dark days come and monsters are at the door, I want you to stand behind Cain Machinovic. He will beat back the beasts, or be destroyed. Cain The Machine Machinovic, the man who single-handedly captured the fabled Oliver Alt, returns in this sequel to KILL BY NUMB3RS. He leads a crack FBI team self-dubbed the 7th Circle for the place in Hell that Dante designated for people who harm others. The agents hunt a particular order of psychopathy, serial killers. Top-notch operatives and a state of art computer nicknamed, Sherlock, put them at the top of their field. In a current investigation, they capture, then uncover a Pandora s Box of death when they arrest a man who is playing an online game with other murderers. The group plays a virtual video game, Clan Bean. An offensive game named for the Scottish legend, Sawney Bean, who, along with his incestious family, murdered and cannibalized 1,000 people in the 15th Century. In real life, virtual life becomes an actuality, and the body count rises. The high-tech chase begins, and the FBI unwittingly expose themselves to the members of the game. No one is more prized than The Machine. This designation brings the meticulous and relentless Cain, directly into the crosshairs of danger. One extremely evil group versus The Machine. Some would think it a fair fight. Those who know Cain comprehend that this battle will most likely be the end of Clan Bean. In life, there are at least two sides. Occasionally, one side overwhelms the other. That is when monsters arise and with them, heroes who battle to restore stability. Using a razor sharp hunting knife,...
