Do you remember Myint Zaw, General Secretary of D.A.B.? He died in March by sickness. All the place you had been with us in Hteekabalae are fallen into enemy's hand. I was in the area when the enemy approached. I sent my men to the front and have to leave quickly. I was told by my men to leave they don't let me know because they didn't want me to worry." From the publisher : "Chan Chao's first book, Burma: Something Went Wrong (Nazraeli Press, 2000), showed us a region in constant turmoil, whose people have been at war with themselves for generations, where violence and death, nevertheless, provide a backdrop to what is still a golden land.
