In his new book, Wrestling With God Without Getting Pinned, Rev. Dr. Watkins tackles the foundation of Christian religious teaching, the Bible. Through his commentaries on Bible stories, some obscure and some Sunday School classics, Watkins teases out logical lessons from what can be rather fantastic narratives. Often, the lessons that Watkins, a rising star in progressive Christian scholarship, offers differ radically from those that most Christians have heard over the years. Watkins does not pull his punches. Where a contradiction is stated, a fact of science is ignored, or a biblical hero is presented in a less-than-heroic manner, Rev. Dr. Watkins refuses to circumnavigate reasonable thinking and take the easy way out by calling it a mystery to be revealed by God at some later time. In Rev. Dr. Watkins religious viewpoint, there is dignity and honor in a lowly donkey, there is courageous feminism in a list of begats , and there are times when God s example is not the one to follow. Although this is a work of thoughtful biblical study, it...
