Three women with different backgrounds, yet, they are on a similar journey to overcome the tragedies of life. Journey with Martha: A middle aged African American woman, who once enjoyed a maximized life with her husband Joe. The tables turn and Martha has to face the truth that her husband has been living a lie for over eighteen years of marriage. His secret marital indiscretions and fraudulent religiosity explodes in her face, but she is given a second chance to love again. Journey with Stephanie: A successful conservative Jewish Accountant, who becomes the fiancée of one of New York's affluent real estate businessmen. She feels trapped in a cyclical abusive relationship, but then finds herself attracted to one of her employees. Stephanie now has to choose either the security of money, or the security she feels in her heart for her secret lover. Journey with Sarah: A young and vibrant college senior, who aims to break through the poverty stricken cycle of her family. She struggles with the truth that she is the offspring of...
