Sooner or later, you are going to have to deal with it, and sometimes delays conserver to exacerbate the problem. The Services financial condition has deteriorated. Its liabilities exceed its assets. It has a negative net worth. The Services major liabilities and obligations are estimated at close to 100 billion, which include liabilities for pensions, workers compensation, debt to the Treasury, and certain other obligations for Postal retirement health benefits. While some of these amounts are reflected on the balance sheet of the Postal Service, some of these amounts are not. For example, 49 billion in unfunded retiree health benefits are not reflected on the balance sheet. In addition, they are not adequately disclosed in the notes. In addition, there is a 32 billion number that is re-flected as a pension liability, but it is also reflected as a deferred asset, therefore...
