I am sure they shall never all meet more in this world, for many shall die in the quest. I have loved them as well as my life, wherefore it grieves me right sore, the departing of this fellowship. And therewith the tears fell in his eyes. CHAPTER IV HOW THE KNIGHTS DEPARTED When the queen, ladies, and gentlewomen wist these tidings, they had such sorrow and heaviness of heart that no tongue might tell it; for those knights had held those ladies in honour and love. And many of these ladies that loved knights would have gone with their lovers, had not an old knight come among them in religious clothing and he spake to all, and said, Fair lords, who have sworn in the quest of the San-greal, thus sendeth Nacien, the hermit, word to you, that none lead lady nor gentlewoman...
