Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Alumni Review, Vol. 4: October, 1915 Begin to plan now to be present to witness their success! During the three years of its existence The Review has had but little to say about itself. As it begins its fourth year, it does not contemplate breaking this rule, but it wishes to ask the hearty, thoughtful co-operation of all the alumni to make it more effective than it has been. It wishes to request particularly that the alumni send notes concerning themselves or other alumni for publication, that more letters and original papers be contributed, and that subscriptions and advertising be secured for it whenever possible. The Review is in receipt of an announcement from the University of Virginia Alumni News that it has ceased publication because of the fact that it was not self-supporting. The Alumni News began publication soon after The Review was started. It contained twelve pages of printed matter per issue and was issued fortnightly. The subscription price was $2.00 per year. Splendidly edited, and attractive in appearance, it was easily one of the most interesting of the alumni publications on The Review's exchange list and The Review genuinely regrets its passing. A Record Year Begins The One Hundred and Twenty-first Year Formally Opens With 166 More Students Present on the Opening Day Than in 1914-15 The formal opening of the 121st year of the University occurred in Memorial Hall at noon on Thursday, September 8, with 998 students registered, the number being 166 greater than that at the same time in 1914. Rev. W. D. Moss. of the Presbyterian Church, offered the invocation and Preston H. Epps, led in...
