Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from International Emigration Commission; Geneva, August 1921: Report of the Commission I have the honour to make the following Report in the name of the International Emigration Commission, which was set up by the Governing Body of the International Labour Office in accordance with a decision taken by the General Labour Conference during its meeting in 1919 at Washington. The Commission sat at Geneva, at the International Labour Office, from 2nd to 11th August, 1921. It held fourteen meetings, the minutes of which are attached to this report. During these sittings the following resolutions were passed: - Statistics. 1. Each Member shall communicate to the International Labour Office, at intervals as short as possible and not exceeding three months: - All available information, legislative, statistical, or otherwise, concerning emigration, immigration, the repatriation and transit of emigrants, including reports on measures taken or contemplated in respect of these questions. Whenever practicable, the information referred to above shall be made available for such communication not later than three months after the end of the period to which it relates. 2. That the Director of the International Labour Office be requested to consult the statistical departments of Members with a view to proposing the form of a suitable schedule to be submitted to the 1922 Conference. International Co-ordination of measures for the protection of emigrants. 3. The Commission requests the Governing Body of the International Labour Office to take all measures necessary to ensure that the Technical Emigration Section, assisted, if necessary, by a few experts, shall investigate the question of international co-ordination of legislation affecting emigration. Employment of Emigrants. 4. Each Member should undertake to place at the...
