Johnel possesses spiritual logic and great common sense which resonate at the level of the believer to reassure those who would follow. As current events weave themselves into signposts that scream the time is near, parallels emerge that push denial aside and make plain the Apocalypse is now an event horizon. Denial breaks and Johnel is forced to submit that he possess great power given from above and is forced to use this power to battle the Euro Ten, who, along with Russia and China, plan to invade and occupy America who block their plans to start a New World Order. The North American Continental Plate slides violently causing earth quakes to devastate the United States.
